

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES STATEMENT OF DOWN SYNDROME DEVELOPMENT TRUST.

Down Syndrome Development Trust accepts that in society, certain groups of people and individuals suffer discrimination. We are positively committed to opposing discrimination against people on the grounds of race, colour, religion, class, age, disability, marital status, their trade union activities, or because they are lesbian or gay, or because they have dependants, or because they are ex-offenders, or because they have a history of mental distress.

As an employer Down Syndrome Development Trust is committed to ensuring that no job applicant, employee or volunteer is treated less favourably because of their gender, race, age marital status, being a lesbian or gay man, religion disability, being HIV positive or having AIDS or on any other unjustifiable grounds. We are also committed to ensuring that our recruitment practices are easily accessible to all sectors of the community. We have a positive attitude towards training and development for all our employees regardless of their status within the organisation.

As a service provider the organisation will endeavour to provide quality services which meet the needs of the community which it serves. Whenever possible we will try to respond to current and changing needs. This will include seeking the views both of existing and potential users on ways of improving the quality and relevance of our services. No individual or group will be treated less favourably because of their race, gender, age, marital status, being a lesbian or a gay man, being HIV positive or having AIDS, or on any other grounds that are unjustifiable.

We will regularly monitor the effectiveness of this equal opportunities policy and the results will be available to all users, volunteers, employees and members.

The organisation will challenge discriminatory actions and language

Implementation of our policy

shall promote equality of access to its services by the following means:

- Ensuring that publicity and information material (e.g. leaflets, posters, newsletters, reports) reflect that in many areas within UK that the Trust may work that there are multi-racial communities by providing information and publicity in appropriate languages and styles.
- Liaising closely with organisations working with ethnic minority groups and people with disabilities to bring about a greater understanding of issues and sharing of resources.
- Designing its services so that people living with Down Syndrome can benefit from them and positively encouraging them to do so.
- Provide training for all who provide services within Down Syndrome Development Trust in equal opportunities (including staff, volunteers, Management Committee) and using established procedures to deal with any offensive behaviour.

- Using co-opted places on the Management Committee, where necessary, to ensure that the membership of the Committee reflects the commitment Down Syndrome Development Trust has to Equal Opportunities.
- Holding services and meetings in places that are accessible to people with disabilities.

VOLUNTEERS

Our policy is that volunteers shall not suffer discrimination in recruitment, support and training opportunities on the grounds of sex, race, age (except on the basis of insurance cover), colour, nationality, ethnic or national origins, marital status, sexual orientation, disability, trade union activities, politics or religious beliefs.

To carry out this policy Down Syndrome Development Trust shall:

- monitor applicants for voluntary work in terms of sex, race and disability;
- provide training opportunities to volunteers including Equal Opportunities and how to deal with offensive behaviour;
- translate volunteer recruitment/support literature into appropriate languages.

The monitoring of equal opportunities with Down Syndrome Development Trust will be done on an annual basis. Down Syndrome Development Trust will maintain a record of the composition of current staff, volunteers, clients and management members, and seek information for the following procedures:

- disciplinary
- grievance
- dismissals
- reasons for leaving

Down Syndrome Development Trust will also hold regular meetings for its clients and use these as a forum to feed back any discriminating practices/grievances to its staff and managers.

TRAINING

Down Syndrome Development Trust will take responsibility for the training needs of staff and management in relation to the equal opportunities policy.

All existing staff and management should undertake some form of training to make them aware of the realities of discrimination on the grounds of gender, race, disability and discrimination faced by lesbian and gay men. All new members of the team should undertake similar training, preferably within 12 months.

New staff should be made aware of the training opportunities available to them and positively encouraged to take these up. This applies to all staff, whatever level in the organisation. In particular, staff are encouraged to take up training which will enhance their work performance and career prospects.
